THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We hope you all have a wonderful Labor Day weekend. Summer went by so fast again his year .

With Labor Day being here already, this means we will be hosting the Funanza archery competition next weekend.

Campers will start showing up Wednesday for this event and thanks to Tom Grady, Willy Fultz, Dave Moravec and the rest of the archery crew for having the course all set up and ready to go.

The competition begins Friday, and they will shoot again on Saturday with the shoot-off being held on Sunday.

We will be having a fish fry dinner Friday night, Sept. 5th (fried fish only). The kitchen in the pole barn will be offering breakfast both Saturday and Sunday, along with lunch both days as well

We will also be having a Chicken and Biscuit dinner Saturday night as well as a Band and everyone is welcome to come to the fish fry, breakfast, lunch, dinner and band if you would like to come.

Next Stop: Newark, Delaware

Thank you to Tim and Samantha Dillon, Tom Grady, Frank Keatley, Brian Bartlett and his two boys Calob and Jacob, and Dave Stratton for all your help this year filling the houses, keeping the machines cleaned and running smoothly, and scoring and doing all the paperwork. It's a lot to do and you all get it done.
